- What do angels long to look into and why?
- What personal applications did you draw from this passage in Peter?

Isaiah 52

13 See, my servant will act wisely;
he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

14 Just as there were many who were appalled at him—

his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being and his form marred beyond human likeness—

15 so he will sprinkle many nations, and kings will shut their mouths because of him.

For what they were not told, they will see,

and what they have not heard, they will understand.

Isaiah 53

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

2 He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground. He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

3 He was despised and rejected by mankind,

a man of suffering, and familiar with pain.

Like one from whom people hide their faces

he was despised, and we held him in low esteem.

4 Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering,

yet we considered him punished by God,
 stricken by him, and afflicted.
5 But he was pierced for our transgressions,
 he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace
was on him,
 and by his wounds we are healed.
6 We all, like sheep, have gone astray,
 each of us has turned to our own
way;
and the Lord has laid on him
 the iniquity of us all.
7 He was oppressed and afflicted,
 yet he did not open his mouth;
he was led like a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
 so he did not open his mouth.
8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away.
 Yet who of his generation protested?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;
 for the transgression of my people he
was punished.
9 He was assigned a grave with the
wicked,
 and with the rich in his death,
though he had done no violence,
 nor was any deceit in his mouth.
10 Yet it was the Lord's will to crush him
and cause him to suffer, and though the Lord makes his life an offering for sin,
he will see his offspring and prolong his
days,

 and the will of the Lord will prosper in his hand.
11 After he has suffered,
 he will see the light of life and be satisfied;
by his knowledge my righteous servant
will justify many,
 and he will bear their iniquities.
12 Therefore I will give him a portion
among the great,
 and he will divide the spoils with the
strong,
because he poured out his life unto
death,
 and was numbered with the
transgressors.
For he bore the sin of many,
 and made intercession for the
transgressors.

Daniel 7

13 "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven.
He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. 14 He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.
